Unsere Geschichte

OUR STORY

Alpen Haus began in Waiblingen, a small town just outside Stuttgart, where the Hess family learned that a good meal is never rushed and a good bier is never far away. When we crossed the ocean, the recipes came with us: handwritten, flour-dusted, and non-negotiable.

Everything we serve is made the way it was taught to us: Schnitzel pounded by hand, Rotkraut braised slow, and yes, our German potato salad served at room temperature, just wie bei Oma. Some things you don't modernize.

Tatjana and Alec built this place to be Valparaiso's living room, a spot for families, for regulars, and for anyone who believes dinner should end with a Prost. Come say hallo.

Onkel Al's Bourbon Flight of the Month! $35

WOODFORD RESERVE RYE · MICTHER'S SOUR MASH

Four pours, picked by Al himself — this month only.

Our beef comes from Meats by Linz, the Chicagoland family butcher trusted by America's great steakhouses since 1963.
